THE WAY WE GET BY
SILVER MAPLES OF CHELSEA | 2:00PM
100 SILVER MAPLES DR., CHELSEA, MI

Join us this Veterans Day for a viewing of the documentary The Way We Get By. This award-winning film follows the stories of three unsung heroes who greet all US troops as they arrive or depart from Iraq. A heartwarming film about life, and a great reminder of how even a small gesture of gratitude can go a long way. In partnership with POV, PBS's award-winning nonfiction film series pbs.org/pov.

CDL Honors Its Local Service Men and Women

Below are just a few ways CDL honors our local active military and veterans who have served to defend our country's freedom.

CDL is pleased to offer a NEW military library card beginning November 11, 2018. This special card allows the holder to borrow materials without incurring overdue fees and provides $10/year towards printing costs. To apply for a CDL military library card, you must live within the Chelsea District Library service area and provide one of the following forms of military identification: VA card, VA designation on driver's license or state ID, active military ID, or discharge papers - DD-214.

Korean War Photo Exhibit

Nov. 5–Dec. 2 | Main Lobby | Chelsea District Library

During 1954, Charlie Taylor, Sr. was a photographer and the Seoul, Korea bureau chief of the Army newspaper, The Pacific Stars and Stripes. This exhibit showcases his photographs of the U.S. military in Seoul and the local people on the streets and in the villages. It also includes several of Charlie's personal items from his time in the Korean War.

This online collection created by CDL helps to preserve the rich history of Chelsea, MI. It chronicles the unique stories and experiences of Chelsea area residents through documentaries, photographs, and individuals' stories. Included in this collection are three documentaries, which convey the stories of local veterans who served in the WWII, Korean, and Vietnam wars. It also contains World War I: Strong Foundations, New Possibilities, a digital project, which includes WWI era photographs, letters, stories, and artifacts collected from local Chelsea families. Visit storiesofchelsea.org to explore the Chelsea area's rich military history. Documentaries are also available on DVD at CDL.
