AUTHORS in the Classroom!

North Creek Elementary School

Painter and photographer Rick Lieder and author Helen Frost will be appearing at North Creek Elementary school to talk to first and second graders.

Rick Lieder's art has appeared on award-winning novels ranging from mysteries and science fiction, to Newbery Award-winning books for children. His firefly filmmaking was featured in the 2016 PBS NOVA program "Creatures of Light," produced by National Geographic Television.

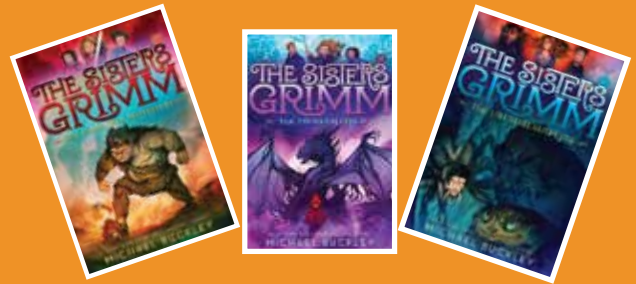

Helen Frost is a poet and the author of several books for young people, including Hidden, Diamond Willow, Crossing Stones, The Braid, and Keesha's House, selected an Honor Book for the Michael L. Printz Award. Rick and Helen's innovative picture books featuring Helen's poetry and Rick's photography include Step Gently Out, Sweep up the Sun, Among a Thousand Fireflies, and Wake Up!

The POWER of Writing!

South Meadows Elementary

Students at South Meadows Elementary School will meet Michael Buckley, author of The New York Times best-selling series The Sisters Grimm and several other works for middle grade and young adult readers.

The Sisters Grimm takes traditional fairy tale stories and characters and twists them into modern adventures, and it's been featured on various "best-of" lists from the New York Public Library, Washington Post, USA Today, and many other organizations. Michael's writing incorporates humor, wit, and a love for stories that readers will identify with immediately.

Along the way to becoming an author, Michael interned for the David Letterman Show and developed and wrote shows for Nickelodeon, Cartoon Network, and Discovery Channel. He now lives in Brooklyn, New York, with his family.

Free Book Offer

The first 20 families to arrive at the Washington Street Education Center at 6:30pm on Tuesday, March 13, 2018 will receive a coupon for a free book from Just Imagine's table in the WSEC lobby! Books by all authors will also be available for purchase.
