Title: Local Event is Not Politics As Usual!

Have you ever wished for a minute to talk with your State Senator about protecting Michigan's water supply? Or a chance to chat with the City Mayor about local park planning? Maybe you are curious to know what the Chelsea School District Superintendent has planned for the upcoming bond proposal? The Chelsea District Library and Chelsea Senior Center are pleased to co-host Direct Dialoguing on the Double, an afternoon devoted to civil, one-on-one conversation with your state and local elected officials.

The event will take place October 6, from 2-4pm at the Washington Street Education Center (500 Washington St, Chelsea, MI 48118) and will follow a speed dating format, allowing everyone a 3-minute conversation with the representatives of their choice. Ask questions, respectfully voice your opinions, and enjoy this unique opportunity to meet the people who represent you!

Officials joining us include: City of Chelsea Fire Chief Robert Arbini, Chelsea City Manager John Hanifan, Chelsea City Mayor Melissa Johnson, Chelsea School District Superintendent Dr. Julie D. Helber, State Representative Donna Lasinski, Washtenaw County Commissioner Jason Maciejewski, Senator Gary Peters, Dexter Township Superintendent Harley Rider, State Senator Lana Theis, and Chelsea City Police Chief Ed Toth.

For more information about this event or to register, please call 734-475-8732 ext. 219.
